TILT Tip: Responding to Students' Affective Feedback Signals

Today's TILT Tip, from Teaching Innovation and Learning Technologies: Interpreting student feedback can be tricky, especially when it comes to the affective signals your students may be sending during class. Check out these helpful pointers: <https://www.facultyfocus.com/articles/teaching-and-learning/taking-the-class-temperature-cognitive-and-affective-feedback/>.

Promotion and Tenure Timelines

The 2018-2019 promotion and tenure timelines are now available on the Office of the Provost's site: https://www.fhsu.edu/academic/provost/tenure_promotion_timelines/index.

Reviewing parties, including tenure or promotion committee members - please note all applicable review and appeal dates.

Additional electronic notification of appropriate tenure timelines will be sent to all current tenure-track faculty by July 2 based on our records at the present time. As new contracts are issued, we will do our best to ensure that the appropriate timeline is given to new tenure-track faculty. However, this responsibility ultimately lies with the chair. On or before the last day of faculty orientation, departmental chairs shall describe to all faculty reporting to them the procedures leading to decisions related to tenure and promotion. That information will refer the candidate/applicant to the criteria for tenure and promotion as stated in the Memorandum of Agreement Between Fort Hays State University Chapter of American Association of University Professors and Fort Hays State University/Kansas Board of Regents and will outline the documentation necessary for the tenure and promotion files.
